

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Print Plus is Now Servicing Carolina Connections' Customers.

Printing company Carolina Connections of Kitty Hawk, NC is ceasing operations and transferring all work to Print Plus.

KITTY HAWK, North Carolina, (November 27, 2007) – After over 16 years of servicing the printing & graphic arts needs of customers on the Outer Banks, Carolina Connections is closing its doors. In an effort to best serve and protect the interest of their loyal customers, Carolina Connections owner Mary Gillen has transferred ownership of the art and job history of all past Carolina Connections jobs to Print Plus. Carolina Connections graphic artist and long time employee Bob Geis has also joined the Print Plus team. Bob has been working as a graphic artist on the Outer Banks for over 20 years, the last 12 with Carolina Connections.

“All customers can rest assured that their needs will be met better than ever by Print Plus. We welcome the opportunity to introduce our expanded services and continue to improve on the quality and dedication they have been receiving from Carolina Connections over the years. We also are thrilled that Bob Geis will be joining our team of graphic artists, as he is certainly one of the most talented and experienced designers on the beach.”, commented Rick Haley, owner of Print Plus & Graphic Solutions Advertising, Inc.

ABOUT CAROLINA CONNECTIONS – Started in 1991 by Mary Gillen offering business services, invitations, fax and UPS services in Kill Devil Hills, NC. In 1992 opened in Kitty Hawk, NC and expanded into full service offset printing, duplication, graphic design and mailing services.

ABOUT PRINT PLUS – Founded in 1999 as a service of Graphic Solutions Advertising, Inc. Graphic Solutions Advertising, Inc. has been offering advertising & publication design/production and graphic design services on the Outer Banks since 1993.
